ORDER

BEFORE THE COURT is the trial in this matter currently scheduled for May 3, 2021. For the reasons stated herein, the time to try this case is extended up to and including October 4, 2021.

In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Chief Judge of the District Court of the Virgin Islands entered a general order concerning operations of the Court on March 17, 2020. The Chief Judge has thus far extended the order ten times, finding that the ends of justice require excluding March 18, 2020, through March 31, 2021, from the Speedy Trial count in all criminal matters.

To date, the COVID-19 virus has claimed more than 534,000 lives (25 of which have been in the U.S. Virgin Islands). Current testing indicates that the rate of contraction of the virus is slowing in recent weeks. Notwithstanding the decrease in the incidence of COVID-19 in the Virgin Islands over the past few weeks, the Court finds that a continuance of the trial date in this case is in the best interest of justice.<sup>1</sup> As a multi-defendant case, this case presents significant challenges for the Court to comply with social distancing guidelines during the jury trial. Practical considerations would require additional spacing for Defendants, counsel, <sup>1</sup> There are also two motions pending disposition by the Court: Defendant Jahvid Alexander's Motion to Suppress Evidence Stemming from Warrantless Search, filed February 3, 2021, and (2) Defendant Jestus Lars Francis' Joinder in Motion to Suppress Evidence, filed February 12, 2021. (ECF Nos. 67 and 69). The Speedy Trial Act also excludes "[a]ny period of delay resulting from other proceedings concerning the defendant, including . . . (D) delay resulting from any pretrial motion, from the filing of the motion through the conclusion of the hearing on, or other prompt disposition of, such motion. . . ." 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(1).

and jurors—and the potential for additional jurors in the courtroom. As such, the Court finds that extending the period within which Defendants may be tried under the Speedy Trial Act is necessary for the protection and well-being of the Defendants, the jury, the prosecutors, the witnesses, the Court’s personnel, and the general public at large.
